

To the Cumulus Nominations Committee:

On behalf of CY Tech, CY Cergy Paris Université, France, I am delighted to express our strong support for the candidacy of İbrahim Dalkılıç, Vice Rector of International and Social Affairs at Arkin University of Creative Arts and Design (ARUCAD), for a position on the Cumulus Executive Board for the 2025–2028 term.

Michel GUILMAULT, Director of International Relations at CY Tech, has been privileged to collaborate with ARUCAD under the leadership of İbrahim Dalkılıç, and we have witnessed firsthand his dedication to fostering international academic partnerships and expanding opportunities for creative exchange. As a representative from Cyprus—a country with a rich artistic and cultural heritage—İbrahim Dalkılıç brings a unique and valuable perspective to the Cumulus network. His commitment to strengthening international collaboration, obtaining new member universities, and expanding the Cumulus Family aligns perfectly with the association's mission of fostering global diversity in art and design education.

With his dynamic leadership style and deep understanding of the evolving needs of creative institutions, we are confident that İbrahim Dalkılıç will make a meaningful contribution to the Cumulus Executive Board. His expertise, vision, and passion for international engagement will undoubtedly help shape the future of the Cumulus community.

We enthusiastically endorse İbrahim Dalkılıç's candidacy and believe that his election to the board will bring new opportunities for collaboration and innovation. Please do not hesitate to reach out if further information is required regarding this recommendation.

Sincerely yours,
